From the Worshipful Master Elect,

Greetings from the West my Brothers. As we close out 2019, I would like to congratulate our Worshipful Master, Julian Mackenzie, on a very successful year. This has been a formative year for the lodge with many changes that I believe have set us up for long term success. I am also humbled and honored to have been elected Worshipful Master for 2020; the profound importance of this responsibility is one that I take seriously, and I will endeavor to help the lodge to continue grow and prosper in the coming year.

I would also like to congratulate Brothers Patrick Ferguson, Roderick Cambridge, and Norman Perez on their excellent Fellowcraft Proficiency on December 3rd. Their outstanding performance demonstrates their dedication to the Craft and is also a credit to the hard work and dedication of their instructor Brother Christophe Sevin.

Brothers Ferguson, Cambridge, and Perez were Raised to Master Mason on December 17th. The Degree Team put in long hours of practice and I would like to thank them for all of their hard work preparing for the degree; everyone did a great job. I look forward to sitting in Lodge with our newly raised brothers and if you have not been to Lodge in a while I encourage you to come out and meet our new Master Masons.

Fraternally,
H. Michael Lowell
Senior Warden

Thanks to Brother Pat Ferguson for building and donating to Temple Terrace Lodge the pictured picnic table..
