From the Worshipful Master,

Greetings from the East my Brothers. 2020 is off to a great start for the Lodge, preparations are well underway for our annual Charity Smoker at Cigar Castle on February 29 and it is sure to be a great event. Thank you to R:W: Joe Meketsy and Bro. Atul Solanki for all their hard work making this event happen.

Coming up on May 9, 2020 we will have our First Cornerstone Seafood Festival. W.: Gene Osburn from Apalachicola will be coming down to cook for everyone. If you have not had W.: Osburn's cooking this is your chance. He is renowned for his talents in the kitchen and you will not be disappointed in this event. Tickets are $25 and with the all you can eat seafood you are automatically entered into a drawing for a Big Screen TV. The Seafood Festival will be our fundraiser to raise funds to remodel our Lodge Room. I encourage everyone to come out and have a great afternoon, support our Lodge, and enjoy some great food.

On February 13th Bro. Rod Cambridge, Bro. Patrick Ferguson, and I went to A.W. Windhorst Lodge to return an apron from 1941 discovered in our Worshipful Master's Office. The apron belonged to Bro. Solomon Abramovitz who was Raised on September 6, 1928. It was a great honor and privilege to be able to return this piece of history to its rightful home. While visiting we learned that grandfather of Bro. Doug Gasque, A.W. Windhorst's Senior Steward, signed Bro. Abramovitz's petition when he joined A.W. Windhorst Lodge in 1928. It is great to see the historic connection that Masonry has through a Lodge and legacy left behind by a Brother.

I look forward to seeing you at our next State Communication.

Fraternally,
H. Michael Lowell
Worshipful Master

From the Senior Warden,

A lot going on in February working to finish up some projects from last year and getting stated on some new projects for 2020. A new sign out front on the wall, new lettering on the door and windows in front and a sign for the smoker out back which is awesome.

The smoker across the street at the Cigar Castle is at the end of the month, weather should be nice.

Fraternally,
Brother Rick Nolf
Senior Warden

From the Junior Warden,

Fraternal Greetings from the South!

The Excitement of a New Masonic Year is upon us. New officers, new goals and exciting challenges as Fellowship and Brotherly Love prevail. Under the tutelage of M. W. Dick Martinez and W. M. Mike Lowell, our degree team prepares as another Man is slated to become a Brother of our Lodge, Temple Terrace Lodge No. 330 F. & A. M.

Please come and enjoy what Temple Terrace Lodge has to offer.

Carl R. Meyers, Jr.
Junior Warden
